

The tool we will be using is a reciprocating saw and a carbide-tipped blade with 8 teeth per inch spacing. Reciprocating saw is a very reliable tool when operating in a confined space. As we need to get behind the cast iron down pipe.

Kind regards

James Rooney
Director

JW Gutters Ltd