Distance From Site:	678m
Date Taken:	09/12/2024	Mid-ground	Scrub groupings on slopes down to rough grazing pasture and Gerrard Wood-woodland group of broadleaved trees. Taller tree lines flank the edges if the A627M with gaps revealing direct views to the fields within the site. More undulating pasture to the east of the view	Value of View	Landscape Sensitivity/Value
Time Taken:	11.22am			medium/high	Low
Camera Model:	Canon EOS R5
Full Frame/Pano:	Panoramic	Background	Prominent views to Stakehill industrial estate large scale built form interspersed with belts of trees. To the LHS filtered views through foreground tree branches.	Observations:	Weather conditions overcast with some occasional breaks. Generally good /very good visibility. A valued view-due to the local elevated prominence of Tandle Hill and the relatively flat topography in the main view subject. The orientation allows more prominent views to the west of the site and the adjoining land to the north of the A627M slip road including St John Thornham Church.
