

Evidence of condition

TPO REF: TPO101

All the ends of the branches of the ash tree are brittle, have no buds and are shedding into the garden over conservatory due to ash die back.

Replanting Proposal:

The property owner proposes to replace with a more suitable species, such as Field maple (Acer campestre) and is open to alternative suggestions if recommended. Replanting will occur in the same location following the removal.