Description of the Proposal

Please note in regard to:

- Fire Statements - From 1 August 2021, planning applications for buildings of over 18 metres (or 7 stories) tall containing more than one dwelling will require a 'Fire Statement' for the application to be considered valid. There are some exemptions. View government planning guidance on fire statements or access the fire statement template and guidance.
- Permission in Principle - If you are applying for Technical Details Consent on a site that has been granted Permission In Principle, please include the relevant details in the description below.
- Public Service Infrastructure - From 1 August 2021, applications for certain public service infrastructure developments will be eligible for faster determination timeframes. See help for further details or view government planning guidance on determination periods.

Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

This proposal will need a change of use from Class C3 (dwelling house) to Class C2 (residential institutions). To change the residential house of 64 Bamford Way to a disabled children's home, some internal modifications are needed to be made. Firstly, the lounge and dining room will be separated so the current dining space will be converted into a sensory room for the children to use for them to use as a nurturing and calming space to aid in their development. The other works will be to create a fully compliant wet room in the original family bathroom so this is easier for the carers to wash the children. Furthermore, As well as modifications internally there will be statutory changes as well, a new rewire, upgrades to the boiler, boxing in the balustrade and fire safety improvements to comply with the operations of a residential children's home. See drawing (for full description of all works proposed.)

Biodiversity and Geological Conservation

Is there a reasonable likelihood of the following being affected adversely or conserved and enhanced within the application site, or on land adjacent to or near the application site?

To assist in answering this question correctly, please refer to the help text which provides guidance on determining if any important biodiversity or geological conservation features may be present or nearby; and whether they are likely to be affected by the proposals.

a) Protected and priority species

- ☐ Yes, on the development site
- ☐ Yes, on land adjacent to or near the proposed development
- ☒ No

b) Designated sites, important habitats or other biodiversity features

- ☐ Yes, on the development site
- ☐ Yes, on land adjacent to or near the proposed development
- ☒ No

c) Features of geological conservation importance

- ☐ Yes, on the development site
- ☐ Yes, on land adjacent to or near the proposed development
- ☒ No

Supporting information requirements

Where a development proposal is likely to affect features of biodiversity or geological conservation interest, you will need to submit, with the application, sufficient information and assessments to allow the local planning authority to determine the proposal.

Failure to submit all information required will result in your application being deemed invalid. It will not be considered valid until all information required by the local planning authority has been submitted.

Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why they are exempt from doing so.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Please add all the exemptions or transitional arrangements that apply and provide a reason why

Exemption: Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold) Reason for selecting exemption: alternation and refurbishment of an existing household dwelling no external works planned

Note: Please read the help text for further information on the exemptions available and when they apply

The property is a large, detached family home with 5 bedrooms. There is a large driveway to the front that could accommodate at least 4 possible 5 vehicles. There is also a single storey garage to the side. No internal changes are proposed.

As stated above, whether planning permission is required depends on whether the character and appearance of the property would change. It can be reasonably assumed that care of 3no children by 2 adults would result in the use of rooms and comings and goings that are typical of a family home. The question here is whether the presence of an assistant manager and manager during the working week changes this. From the description submitted, the property would be their place of work. Whilst this relates to the care of the children, it does not amount to direct provision and so differs from the normal activities of a family home in this regard.

It is, of course possible for residents of a C3 dwelling to work from home or carry out a business that it is incidental to the main use as a dwelling. However, the proposal here would result in between 3 and 4 adults being present on site for significant periods. A reasonable person could come to the view that this results in a change that is material.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☒ Yes
☐ No

If yes, please provide details of their name, role, and how they are related:
