Assessment

Design and Visual Amenity: Are the following acceptable?

Impact on street scene, including subservience, terracing and building line	✓
Height and massing	✓
Facing materials and detailing	✓
Roof style	✓
Window proportions	✓
Bin storage	✓
Impact on trees	✓

The design of the proposal is therefore acceptable and accords with Policies DM1 and P3 of the adopted Rochdale Core Strategy, the SPD and the NPPF.

Residential Amenity: Are the following acceptable?

Impact on privacy, light & outlook of neighbours (to sides, rear and front)	✓
Light and outlook of application property	✓
Remaining garden space of application property	✓

It was noted the proposed rear extension would result in the loss of the existing rear dining room window, effectively removing access to natural light. Notwithstanding the rear fenestration of the proposed extension, which would retain a degree of light into the habitable room, amendments have been accepted to include a roof light above the kitchen area.

It is also acknowledged the proposed rear extension would further reduce the existing rear curtilage space to the property. However, it is noted that terraced properties in the vicinity typically feature limited amenity space, and that existing recreational and woodland spaces are within walking distance from the host property. Taken as a whole, on balance, it is considered the proposal would ensure an acceptable levels of amenity for its occupants.

The proposal is therefore acceptable in terms of residential amenity and accords with Policy DM1 of the adopted Rochdale Core Strategy, the SPD and the NPPF.

Highways and Parking: Are the following acceptable?

Impact on highway safety	✓
Parking provision	✓

The proposal is therefore acceptable in terms of highways and parking and accords with Policy T2 and Appendix 5 of the adopted Rochdale Core Strategy and the NPPF.
